The CIRI Fellowship Program was launched in 2015 to recognize leaders in the investor relations profession who, by their achievements, bring distinction to the profession and serve as role models for others. CIRI Fellows have made significant contributions to the advancement of the investor relations profession and to CIRI throughout their careers. Earning the designation of F.CIRI, the CIRI Fellow is the highest honour for investor relations professionals in Canada.

“These four individuals have demonstrated a long-standing commitment to the investor relations profession and join an elite group of individuals that have earned CIRI’s highest level of recognition,” said Yvette Lokker, President & CEO of CIRI. “Throughout their illustrious careers they have been actively involved in the investor relations community, having made tremendous contributions to the organizations they have represented, to the investor relations profession and to CIRI. We look forward to celebrating their careers and contributions at CIRI’s Annual Conference on June 21, 22 and 23.”

This year’s CIRI Fellows will be honoured during the Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, June 22, as part of CIRI’s 35th Annual Investor Relations Conference.
